Complaints Procedure

We are confident that we can provide a high quality service. It is therefore important that you raise any concerns you may have with us immediately. We value your goodwill and would not wish to think you have reason to be unhappy with us. If, however, you have any queries or concerns about our work for you, please raise them in the first instance with the person responsible for your work. If that does not resolve the problem to your satisfaction or you would prefer not to speak to that person, then please contact their supervisor or the partner named in the client care letter who is designated to assist with any complaints. He can be contacted by telephoning 0116 2541 609 or by post to our office.

The procedure we have in place is that firstly the person responsible for your work or their supervisor will try to answer your complaint, if you remain unhappy you may then ask the partner named in your client care letter to review your complaint. We have eight weeks to consider your complaint. If you have not heard from us within this time you may complain to the Legal Ombudsman. Normally, you will need to bring a complaint to the Legal Ombudsman within 6 months of receiving a final written response from us about your complaint or within six years of the act or omission about which you are complaining occurring (or if outside of this period, within three years of when you should reasonably have been aware of it). The Legal Ombudsman may be contacted by post at:
